Sunday a.m.

Dearest Mother,

Nothing much has happened since
Thurs. night when I last wrote you.

Friday afternoon I tried to write a Comp. 6 paper but was so fatigued as to brain that I couldn't. Gertrude Justin came to dinner with me and we went to choir together & then I went on to gleeclub. When I came home from there I took my books & papers down to C. H. Lib. & tried to write the paper for almost an hour. At 20 min. past 10 I had to give it up & came back to the room. I got into bed, taking one of my Psych books with me so I might study a little while, but Git came in to visit & talked till 11:30 much to my disgust.

Yesterday a.m. I got up at 6:30
& wrote some before breakfast, quite a lot after,
& the rest of my paper during the 90' clock period, so it went in on time. Then I took a back seat in Comp. class & skimmed lightly over my Psych. lesson.

Helene, Helen W., & Marguerite all started for the game in style about the middle of the a.m. Helene is staying in Brookline over Sunday. Helen W. went with a Yale man who gave her two huge bunches of violets. D. Westfall also went with a Yale man.

Dotty Day went to see Maude Adams, so Eleanor & I were left to our lonesomes. We did some work on the C. a. Machine for about an hour after lunch, then tatted & sewed for awhile. Marguerite Taylor came over from the Quad. about 3:30 & we sent the 18 notices to our Elocuting maids. We're going to organize tomorrow eve.

About 5 we walked to the Vill., lingering by the wayside to see all the spooty ladies with quite coming from the trains.

After dinner I didn't do much — sewed a little, but "lollid" mostly as I was dead tired. Went to bed about 10 with "Rob Roy" which I haven't had time to begin before this. I only got 12 pp. of the Introd. read when I felt compelled to go to sleep. I slept thru from about 10:30 to 7 when the South Natick clock struck. I had meant to get up at 6:30, but lingered in bed till 7:30 for a change (the 1st time in weeks); then took a bath, breakfasted, & here I is. I picked up the rooms last night &, as I have no clean sheets, I am happily prevented from changing my bed. It's now 9:15 &, owing to the paucity of letter material (not stationery), I'll get this finished & a note to John written before 9:50 when I start to Chapel.

Charlotte Cushman is coming to dinner with me. Then Git. & I have bidden our 9 chargelets to eat fudge with us this P.M. This eve. we have musical vespers.

I think that's all I have to tell you.

Why, when you send my laundry back, don't you send only enough underwear to last me three weeks? I'll be sending some more three weeks from tomorrow & if you don't send everything back it'll lessen the amount I have to bring home with me. I'd advise you to send at least a couple of dresses, however, or I may be one of that class called by Miss Gamble (Psych. Prof) "the great unwashed".

I have a lot more work ahead of me this week, but not so much as I had last because of the 2 days' vacation. Just think! a week from today I can say - "Two weeks from Thurs. I'm going home!" When I think of the things I have to do before then, I fairly shudder!

But I must close.

Love to all,

Yours

Charlotte Cushman is coming to dinner with us. She pit. & I have decided over & Charlotte to eat supper with us this

P.M. this eve. we have musical evening.

I think that all I have to tell you.

Why, when you send my lambs back, don't you send only enough underwear to last me three weeks? I'll be sending some more three weeks from tomorrow & if you don't send everything back it'll leave the amount I have to bring home with me. I'd advise you to send at least a couple of dresses, trousers or I may be one of that class called by

"Miss Gumble (Gump, Prof) the great unnumbered."

I have a lot more work ahead of me

this week, but not so much as I had last
